Meetings and services of the Association .- Eight business meetings, 52 jail meetings, 4 social meetings, 6 canal basin meetings, 52 Alms House meetings, 52 Sanday evening meetings-174 meetings Bro E Rotchford, our colporteur at the canal besin and parts adjacent, was fully occupied dur-ing the last season, distributing a large number of religious papers, tracts. &c., reporting a great deal of interest in our work by the parties, in our care for their orel's interests. contacts response of our friends in furnish-my the mane, at for the work just mentioned, ments the thanks of this association; all of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES ENTWISLE, JR.,

On motion it was resolved, that the thanks of of the association be, and are hereby, tendered to its friends for the generous supply of material for the canal work. The Treasurer then presented his annual report as follows which were adopted: Balance on hand May 16, 1881, $19.59; balon hand May 16, 1882, $3.59.

After prayer for Divine guidance the as--ociation proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year, whereupon the following Were chosen: H. W. Beadle, President: Vice Presidents, A. J. Fleming, Second Presbyterian church; D. R. Stansbury, First Presbyterian church: Job Corson, Baptist church; Wm. Lyles, M. E. Church South; John T. Boyd, M. E. Church; Chas. P. Herbert, Methodist Protestant church; James Entwisle, Jr., General Secretary; Robert T. Pitts, Recording Secretary; F. E. Corbett, Corresponding Secretary; W. A. Moore, Treas-N. Greenaway, M.F. Hobson, J.W. Harrison, and K. Kemper. A communication from the Reform Club, with reference to Co-operation in open-air-work, was received. After some discussion it was adopted, and the followin committee appointed. Chas. Egran, R. H. Javins, George Baker, Samuel Wade, and R. T. Pitts. After further religious exercises and singing the doxology the Association adjourned.

THE PIGEON SHOOTING MATCH.—It was tated in yesterday's Gazette that the first piegon shooting match of the Alexandria Gun Club had taken place near this city the day before. The conditions of the match were, 14 birds each man, 21 yards rise, ground traps, and the following is the score:

Killed. Missed. R. J. Daingerfield, H. G. Dulany, R. M. Lawson, J. T. Beckham, Walter Roberts, B. H. Fowle. E. L. Daingerfield, 10 Ties on eleven: miss and out: Lawson. Ties on to; doublebirds by agreement Fowle

E. L. Duingerfield, 0 The Alexandria Gun Club, composed of young business genlemen of this city, has been recently organized, notwithstanding which the score at this, the first pigeon shooting match, will be seen to have been a most creditable one. Glass ball practice is held by the club every Wednesday afternoon at the fair grounds.

A FINE DISPLAY.—Messrs. Tennesson & Co. have in their window, on King street, a display of ceiling and wall paper that cannot be excelled for beauty. It is the finest paper ever brought to this city, and the firm is able to sell it to customers cheaper than it is sold wholesale in Washington. As an evi- same. The following is the ticket nominated: dence of the cheapness of goods in Alexandria it may be stated that Messrs. Tennesson & Co, have on hand a large supply of wire window screen goods, which they are selling 50 cents cheaper than trade prices in Washington. There is no necessity for anyone to go to Washington to make purchases of any kind, as there is no doubt the merchants of Alexandria can sell cheaper than the dealers of that city, who have to make large profits to meet their heavy expenses.

DEATH OF AN ESTEEMED LADY,-Mrs. Mary C. Summers, an esteemed lady, died at her residence on Prince street, early this morning. Mrs. Summers, widow of the late John Summers, esq., came from a family that has given several talented ministers to the Methodist church, and was herself, not only a member of the M. E. Church South, in THE ALEXANDRIA DRAMATIC COMPANY this city, but an earnest Christian, whose life adorned the religion she professd, and proved a standing influence for good in the community, where she was known and loved. Her death, which will be generally regretted, was simply a falling asleep in Jesus—a beautiful ending of a holy life. Her memory will be long cherished by the many who were the recipients of her love and kindness.

THE JAVINS HABEAS CORPUS CASE. - The writ of habeas corpus for the release of Mr. Wm. Javins from the custody of the City Sergeant, committed by the Mayor for re-fusing to pay a fine of $2 imposed for cutting tish in his house on the fish wharf, came up before Judge Keith, at the old court house this morning. After hearing the evidence and the arguments of counsel, Messis. Burke and Brent for Javins, and Corporation Attorney Kemper for the city, the Judge entered an order releasing Mr. Javins. This settles one phase of the Fishtown muddle—the question as to where fish shall be cut. The decision gives Mr. Javins the privilege of cutting and cleaning his fish in his house on the property adjoining fish

THE STEAMER MARY WASHINGTON .-Steamboat Inspectors Schaffer and Lowery visited this city this morning and inspected the steamer Mary Washington, lying at the wharf, foot of Prince street. The Inspectors passed the steamer, (finding her sound in every particular) and allowed her a steam pressure of 80 pounds to the square inch. The Mary Washington, one of the best excursion boats on the river, has been thoroughly overhauled, repainted and refitted, and will make her inaugural trip for the season of 1882 to Occoquan Falls on Sunday hext. Mr. E. S. Randall, the owner, has invited a large number of friends in this city and Washington to be his guests on the La ceived by occasion.

THE RELIEF HOOK AND LADDER FAIR.

The Fair at Armory Hall for the benefit of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company closes

Mr. B. R. Summers, the Norfolk agent of Portner's Brewery, was in the city yesterto-night, when it is expected that the voting for the several articles to be presented to the parties receiving the highest number of votes, will be quite spirited. There were stand in the market this morning, a large supply of fresh fish of all kinds, among them seen by the following:

For Gun-James Smith 83, Geo. Wise 17, scattering 5. For Hat and Belt-Geo. Dix 25, W. T. Rodgers 28.

For Baby's Carriage-Geo. Fisher 79, Eddie Borhaus 55, Birdie Waterman 21, scat-

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY-JUDGE town College Club. JAMES KEITH PRESIDING.-Last night the jury in the case of Enoch Cook against Allison Nailor, of Washington, rendered a ver-dict for the defendant, Nailor. This was a suit brought by Cook to recover damages, sented his annual report, as follows : and on which he laid at $3,000, for the levying upon and removal from the State of his property. The undersigned herewith presents his eleventh consisting of horses and wagons.

This morning the court was engaged in hearing the habeas corpus case of Wm. Javins. An order was entered releasing Mr. Javins from the custody of the City Sergeant, and the court adjourned till Monday next.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.-Rev. Dr. T. L. Poulson, by invitation of the Reform Club, will lecture at the hall of the club to-morrow night upon the subject of beer drinking. This lecture is intended as a reply to the statements made in the recent convention of brewers, held in Washington, as set forth in the resolutions adopted by the convention, that the drinking of beer was conducive to temperance. The public are cordially invited to be present at the lecture.

POLICE NEWS .- A man from the county was locked up in the station house last night for being drunk on the streets. Upon getting sober he was released.

The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of Hester Warnsworth, charged by Ida Nelson, both colored, with entering her house and stealing therefrom some articles. The accused was released, as the charge against her was not sustained by the evidence.

THROWN FROM HIS WAGON AND INJURED The horse attached to the wagon belonging to, and driven by Mr. Wm. Helmuth. became frightened at the breaking of some of the gearing about 6 o'clock this morning at the upper end of King street, and ran away. The wagon was bably damaged and Mr. Helmuth was thrown out and sustained a severe injury to his back, rendering necessary the assistance of Dr. Powell. The horse was uninjured.

LIBELED.—The schooner Robert P. King. Capt. Conway, which arrived here last Friday night from New York with a cargo of salt and was libeled by Washington parties for a debt of $2000, was again libeled last night by Deputy Marshal O'Neal for $34, wages due the mate B. P. Lockman.

at to-day's prices they are the CHEAPEST. WRAPPING PAPER! WOODBINE MILLS!

LABEL REGISTERED.

GUARANTEED FULL COUNT.

February 5th, 1878. 18 SHEETS TO THE QUIRE. STRAW WRAPPING, to be full (Standard) count, should have 18 sheets in each Quire, and 20 Quires to each bundle. There is much paper now being sold with only 15 sheets to the quire, and in some cases as few as 12 sheets. These facts are not known to the consumer; the paper being low in price, they do not think of the number of sheets they get in a 23 Count your PAPER. Ask for "WOOD-BINE." and take nothing else, as this brand is Guaranteed to be FULL (Standard) count, and so is far eheaper to the consumer than a lower priced paper, put up with less sheets to the Quire.

Ask the firm you buy of to give you WOODBINE MILLS Wrapping, and take nothing else, as this paper is the cheapest in the market. COUNT, QUALITY, WEIGHT AND COLOR considered. If you cannot get it of the firm you deal with, try elsewhere. Do not be induced to buy any paper but the WOODBINE MILLS.
